EASTERN HEALTH – HEALTHIER TOGETHER

Eastern Health is one of Melbourne's largest metropolitan public health services. We provide a comprehensive range of high quality acute, sub-acute, palliative care, mental health, drug and alcohol, residential care, community health and statewide services to people and communities that are diverse in culture, age and socio- economic status, population and healthcare needs

1. POSITION PURPOSE

These positions are specifically designed to support newly graduated social workers to successfully transition to practice in mental health. The positions are supported by an established early career program with a strong focus on growth learning, reflective practice, supervision and self-care. The positions are embedded in clinical settings, working alongside a more senior social worker, to enable learning and development in real-life practice related content in a positive and supported environment.

In their first year all graduates will be provided with rotations across two diverse settings in the mental health program. These rotations facilitate the graduate to develop the skills, knowledge and attributes required to provide recovery-focused mental health care for consumers, and their families, carers and supporters. In their second year, all graduates will be supported to complete a further 12-month rotation in another setting, or support to apply for an ongoing Grade 2 position.

Extensive learning and development opportunities are provided across the program by both discipline specific Social Work Educators, and the wider Multidisciplinary Allied Health Mental Health Education Team, including professional development sessions and an individualised learning plan designed to work towards meeting targeted competencies for Social Workers working in the mental health & wellbeing program.

2. MAJOR DUTIES AND/OR RESPONSIBILITIES

Health care excellence

- Skilfully engage consumers, carers, families and supporters in evidence-based psycho-social assessments and interventions to promote recovery.

- Compile and document social work reports for specific purposes/audiences including National Disability Insurance Scheme (NDIS), Access requests or NDIS plan reviews.
- Work collaboratively with consumers, carers, families and supporters in the development and implementation of individualized recovery plans designed to promote, foster and sustain personal recovery.
- Provide effective evidence-based interventions for consumers with mental health and co-occurring mental health and substance use conditions, forensic histories and/or other complexities.
- Undertake comprehensive mental state evaluations and risk assessments to inform planning and safe practice
- Contribute social work expertise to the team clinical reviews, meetings, handovers and case conferences.
- Provide social work consultation and support to other services, teams and agencies as required to promote appropriate service delivery and care.
- Engage with and support community services and resources to facilitate effective community integration and referral.
- Demonstration of relevant family violence practice according to allocated responsibility level in the mental health program workforce mapping tool. This aligns with the Multi-Agency Risk assessment and Management (MARAM) Framework, the Family Violence Information Sharing Scheme (FVIS) and Child Information Sharing Scheme (CISS) legislative requirements and related Eastern Health guidelines.

Leading in Learning

- Actively participate in the Allied Health Mental Health Transition to Practice Program. This includes developing a comprehensive individual learning plan and actively working towards meeting the state-wide mental health social work graduate competencies.
- Actively participate in individual supervision and group reflective practice, lifelong learning and further development. This includes active participation in all graduate professional development sessions and individual and group supervision in the first 12 months.
- Engage in a broad range of professional development activities to ensure up to date skills and knowledge of contemporary recovery focused interventions in mental health
- Ensure adherence with all registration standards applicable for membership of the Australian Association of Social Work (AASW).

Leading in Research and Innovation

- Contribute to the development of appropriate structures, policies and procedures for effective multidisciplinary team functioning in line with government policy, legislation and Eastern Health's standards.
- Contribute to service improvement through involvement in continuous quality improvement activities, research and professional education activities as appropriate.

3. SAFE PRACTICE AND ENVIRONMENT

Occupational Health and Safety

Eastern Health is committed to provide and maintain a working environment for all staff that is safe and without risk to health. All staff are to take care of their own health and safety and the health and safety of any other person who may be affected by your acts or omissions at the workplace. Understand responsibilities and accountabilities to yourself and others in accordance with OH&S legislation and Eastern Health policies and promote a working environment that is congruent with these guidelines. This includes staff reporting of all clinical and OHS incidents and near misses, in particular those related to Occupational Violence, Manual Handling and Slips, trips and falls.

Staff are required to comply with all state legislative requirements in respect to the Occupational Health and Safety Act 2004 and the Workplace Injury Rehabilitation and Compensations (WIRC) Act 2013.

4. TRAINING AND DEVELOPMENT

Relevant, practical and timely education should direct, facilitate, enhance and support the professional growth and practice of employees in a health environment characterised by change. All programs should endeavour to promote evidence-based practice, a problem solving approach and to be competency based.

You are expected to participate in the personal development process on an annual basis.

5. QUALITY

As a staff member of Eastern Health staff are required to comply with Eastern Health performance standards and participate in continuous monitoring and improvement as part of your role. You are also required to comply with legislation, professional standards and accreditation standards.

As a staff member employed by Eastern Health services you must have and maintain the appropriate skills and knowledge required to fulfil your role and responsibilities within the organisation. In addition, you must ensure that you practice within the specifications of this position description, and where applicable within the agreed scope of practice.

You are responsible for ensuring safe high quality care in your work. This will include complying with best practice standards, identifying and reporting any variance to expected standards and minimising the risk of adverse outcomes and patient harm. In addition, you will ensure that service and care is consistent with the EH approach to patient and family centered care.

6. CONFIDENTIALITY

Any information obtained in the course of employment is confidential and should not be used for any purpose other than the performance of the duties for which the person was employed. Staff are bound by the Information Privacy Act 2000 and the Health Records Act 2001.

7. EQUAL EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITY

You agree to adhere to the Equal Employment Opportunity policies and practices of the Health Service. Discriminatory practices, including sexual harassment, are unlawful. The Health Service will not tolerate discriminatory behaviour and any such conduct may lead to the invoking of the Disciplinary Policy and Procedure, which may result in termination of employment.

8. PERFORMANCE DEVELOPMENT

A Performance Review, that includes agreed targets, will occur three (3) months from commencement and then annually on the basis of the duties and responsibilities outlined in this position description. This is an opportunity to review personal and the allocated work unit's service performance, facilitated by the setting of objectives/goals and ongoing evaluation of performance and achievement. Objectives will be developed annually, documented, discussed and agreed with the immediate line manager, who will act as the assessor. The incumbent is expected to demonstrate and show evidence annually of on-going self and allocated work unit's service development.

9. EASTERN HEALTH'S PROMISE

Our promise to our communities, patients, consumers and staff is that we will be HEALTHIER TOGETHER. Bolder than a vision for the future, our promise calls us to action. We know that working together is the only way we can achieve what is necessary for a healthier future.

Our values are ones in action and are the behaviours that matter most.

- Respect for all
- Safe always
- Partnering in care
- Learning and improving everyday

Learning from the challenges of the past and looking to the future, we understand that we are building towards a more engaged, more reliable, always safe health service in partnership with our people to improve every day.
