EASTERN HEALTH – GREAT CARE, EVERYWHERE, EVERY TIME

Eastern Health is one of Melbourne’s largest metropolitan public health services. We provide a comprehensive range of high quality acute, sub-acute, palliative care, mental health, drug and alcohol, residential care, community health and statewide services to people and communities that are diverse in culture, age and socio-economic status, population and healthcare needs.

1. POSITION PURPOSE

To provide admin support for the Care@Home directory. These services include reception and administration support to clients and clinical staff. A key component of this role is accurate data entry within multiple patient management systems and there is a strong emphasis on communication with clients, service providers and staff. The administration assistant has a key role in ensuring that clients receive a professional, friendly, efficient and courteous service.

This position may be required to work across all Eastern Health sites.

2. MAJOR DUTIES AND/OR RESPONSIBILITIES

Admin staff are required at all times to adhere to Eastern Health confidentiality and privacy guidelines.

Duties may include but are not restricted to:

Reception Duties

- Answer reception telephones in a professional, polite and timely manner, screen calls, provide information or transfer calls to the appropriate service or clinician.
- Greet visitors and clients at reception and assist with enquiries
- Register new clients as required and send timely correspondence to the client / referrer / GP and other parties as requested
- Assist in mail collection and timely distribution
- Make client bookings and coordinate client appointments as required.
- Arrange patient transport and interpreting services when needed
- Ability to prioritise, multi-task and maintain a customer focus in a fast-paced work environment
- Participate in duties and tasks that enhance staff safety e.g. staff check in process
- Maintain the patient registration database in a timely manner, ensuring admissions, discharges and appointment details are accurate
- Assist in maintaining privacy and confidentiality of client information
- Generate regular reports, on all aspects of program activity as directed including ability to report and manipulate data in Excel
- Knowledge of medical terminology
- Provide timely word processing of correspondence and typing of letters
- Provide training and orientation of new staff in administrative and IT processes and act as a resource for other staff when required e.g. HMS support
- Assist in the development of common administration policies, processes, and systems and adhere to documented administrative procedures
- Demonstrate high level verbal and written communication skills and negotiation skills
- Demonstrate an ability to take ownership for resolving problems in a timely manner
- Attend and participate in relevant meetings as required
- Actively participate in a team environment in a positive and flexible manner
- Share information and work cooperatively with all administration team members to ensure adequate coverage of duties and a fair balance of workloads to meet fluctuating demands as guided by the Administration Team Leader Rehabilitation & Ambulatory Specialist Clinics Stream
- Perform administrative tasks as required by the Administration Team Leader Rehabilitation & Ambulatory Specialist Clinics Stream
- Work across Health Independence sites depending on service demands
- Administration rotations between sites depending on service demands

3. SAFE PRACTICE AND ENVIRONMENT

Occupational Health and Safety

Eastern Health is committed to provide and maintain a working environment for all staff that is safe and without risk to health. All staff are to take care of their own health and safety and the health and safety of any other person who may be affected by your acts or omissions at the workplace. Understand responsibilities and accountabilities to yourself and others in accordance with OH&S legislation and Eastern Health policies and promote a working environment that is congruent with these guidelines. This includes staff reporting of all clinical and OHS incidents and near misses, in particular those related to Occupational Violence, Manual Handling and Slips, trips and falls.

Staff are required to comply with all state legislative requirements in respect to the Occupational Health and Safety Act 2004 and the Workplace Injury Rehabilitation and Compensation (WIRC) Act 2013.

4. TRAINING AND DEVELOPMENT

Relevant, practical and timely education should direct, facilitate, enhance and support the professional growth and practice of employees in a health environment characterised by change. All programs should endeavour to promote evidence-based practice, a problem solving approach and to be competency based.

You are expected to participate in the personal development process on an annual basis.

5. QUALITY

As a staff member of Eastern Health staff are required to comply with Eastern Health performance standards and participate in continuous monitoring and improvement as part of your role. You are also required to comply with legislation, professional standards and accreditation standards.

As a staff member employed by Eastern Health services you must have and maintain the appropriate skills and knowledge required to fulfill your role and responsibilities within the organisation. In addition, you must ensure that you practice within the specifications of this position description, and where applicable within the agreed scope of practice.

You are responsible for ensuring safe high quality care in your work. This will include complying with best practice standards, identifying and reporting any variance to expected standards and minimising the risk of adverse outcomes and patient harm. In addition, you will ensure that service and care is consistent with the EH approach to patient and family centered care.

6. CONFIDENTIALITY

Any information obtained in the course of employment is confidential and should not be used for any purpose other than the performance of the duties for which the person was employed. Staff are bound by the Information Privacy Act 2000 and the Health Records Act 2000.

7. EQUAL EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITY

You agree to adhere to the Equal Employment Opportunity policies and practices of the Health Service. Discriminatory practices, including sexual harassment, are unlawful. The Health Service will not tolerate discriminatory behaviour and any such conduct may lead to the invoking of the Disciplinary Policy and Procedure, which may result in termination of employment.

8. PERFORMANCE DEVELOPMENT

A Performance Review, that includes agreed targets, will occur three (3) months from commencement and then annually on the basis of the duties and responsibilities outlined in this position description. This is an opportunity to review personal and the allocated work unit's service performance, facilitated by the setting of objectives/goals and ongoing evaluation of performance and achievement. Objectives will be developed annually, documented, discussed and agreed with the immediate line manager, who will act as the assessor. The incumbent is expected to demonstrate and show evidence annually of on-going self and allocated work unit's service development.
