EASTERN HEALTH – HEALTHIER TOGETHER

Eastern Health is one of Melbourne’s largest metropolitan public health services. We provide a comprehensive range of high quality acute, sub-acute, palliative care, mental health, drug and alcohol, residential care, community health and state-wide services to people and communities that are diverse in culture, age and socio- economic status, population and healthcare needs

1. POSITION PURPOSE

Ward 1 East consists of nine acute mental health beds, co-located with eight Turning Point addiction medicine beds. These beds support consumers that benefit from a smaller acute, but low dependency therapeutic environment. The Enrolled Nurse will work in partnership with consumers, carers, families and other service providers to provide high quality clinical care within a recovery oriented framework.

The Registered Psychiatric Nurse is a valued and collaborative member of the multidisciplinary health care team at Eastern Health and is accountable for coordinating and delivering safe and comprehensive patient centred care while working competently within their scope of practice and in alignment with the Eastern Health and Nursing and Midwifery Board Practice Standards.

2. MAJOR DUTIES AND/OR RESPONSIBILITIES

- Works collaboratively to ensure the efficient, effective and responsive operation of the allocated work unit.
- Assumes the role of Associate Nurse Unit Manager (ANUM) or team leader as required.
- Supports and encourages patient's/clients/residents and their families understanding of care delivery and care planning through effective and timely communication with patients/clients/residents, team members, and the community.
- Practices in accordance with the professional standards, codes and behaviours that are legislated through the Nursing and Midwifery Board of Australia (NMBA).
- Ensures clinical interventions are evidence-based and consistent with policy, standard and clinical practice guidelines prescribed by the organisation.
- Complies with Eastern Health policies and reports all actual or near-miss events.
- Incorporates practice which aligns with the EH Nursing & Midwifery Practice Guideline, as relevant to the clinical setting.
- Is accountable for reporting outcomes of nursing interventions to the Unit Manager, Team Leader, ANUM or delegate.
- Treats all patients, clients, residents, visitors and staff in a courteous and non-discriminatory manner. Provides an efficient, effective and customer focused service.
- Facilitates effective patient flow processes in accordance with the guidelines established by the unit and organisation.

3. SAFE PRACTICE AND ENVIRONMENT

- Eastern Health is committed to provide and maintain a working environment for all staff that is safe and without risk to health.
- Required to take care of their own health and safety and the health and safety of any other person who may be affected by your acts or omissions at the workplace.
- Recognise and alleviate potential risk which may jeopardize your health, safety and wellbeing.
- Understand responsibilities and accountabilities to yourself and others in accordance with OH&S legislation and Eastern Health policies and promote a working environment that is congruent with these guidelines.
- Identifies and reports all clinical and OHS incidents and near misses, in particular those related to Occupational Violence, Manual Handling and Slips, trips and falls.
- Required to comply with all state legislative requirements in respect to the Occupational Health and Safety Act 2004 and the Workplace Injury Rehabilitation and Compensation (WIRC) Act 2013.
- Implements harm minimisation strategies for at-risk individuals.
- Treats all employees of the organisation with respect and dignity and without discrimination or harassment.

Occupational Health and Safety

Eastern Health is committed to provide and maintain a working environment for all staff that is safe and without risk to health. All staff are to take care of their own health and safety and the health and safety of any other person who may be affected by your acts or omissions at the workplace. Understand responsibilities and accountabilities to yourself and others in accordance with OH&S legislation and Eastern Health policies and promote a working environment that is congruent with these guidelines. This includes staff reporting of all clinical and OHS incidents and near misses, in particular those related to Occupational Violence, Manual Handling and Slips, trips and falls.

Staff are required to comply with all state legislative requirements in respect to the Occupational Health and Safety Act 2004 and the Workplace Injury Rehabilitation and Compensations (WIRC) Act 2013.

4. TRAINING AND DEVELOPMENT

Relevant, practical and timely education should direct, facilitate, enhance and support the professional growth and practice of employees in a health environment characterised by change. All programs should endeavour to promote evidence-based practice, a problem solving approach and to be competency based.

You are expected to participate in the personal development process on an annual basis.

5. QUALITY

As a staff member of Eastern Health staff are required to comply with Eastern Health performance standards and participate in continuous monitoring and improvement as part of your role. You are also required to comply with legislation, professional standards and accreditation standards.

As a staff member employed by Eastern Health services you must have and maintain the appropriate skills and knowledge required to fulfil your role and responsibilities within the organisation. In addition, you must ensure that you practice within the specifications of this position description, and where applicable within the agreed scope of practice.

You are responsible for ensuring safe high quality care in your work. This will include complying with best practice standards, identifying and reporting any variance to expected standards and minimising the risk of adverse outcomes and patient harm. In addition, you will ensure that service and care is consistent with the EH approach to patient and family centred care.

6. CONFIDENTIALITY

Any information obtained in the course of employment is confidential and should not be used for any purpose other than the performance of the duties for which the person was employed. Staff are bound by the Information Privacy Act 2000 and the Health Records Act 2001.

7. EQUAL EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITY

You agree to adhere to the Equal Employment Opportunity policies and practices of the Health Service. Discriminatory practices, including sexual harassment, are unlawful. The Health Service will not tolerate discriminatory behaviour and any such conduct may lead to the invoking of the Disciplinary Policy and Procedure, which may result in termination of employment.

8. PERFORMANCE DEVELOPMENT

A Performance Review, that includes agreed targets, will occur three (3) months from commencement and then annually on the basis of the duties and responsibilities outlined in this position description. This is an opportunity to review personal and the allocated work unit's service performance, facilitated by the setting of objectives/goals and ongoing evaluation of performance and achievement. Objectives will be developed annually, documented, discussed and agreed with the immediate line manager, who will act as the assessor. The incumbent is expected to demonstrate and show evidence annually of on-going self and allocated work unit's service development.

9. EASTERN HEALTH'S PROMISE

Our promise to our communities, patients, consumers and staff is that we will be HEALTHIER TOGETHER. Bolder than a vision for the future, our promise calls us to action. We know that working together is the only way we can achieve what is necessary for a healthier future.

Our values are ones in action and are the behaviours that matter most.

- Respect for all
- Safe always
- Partnering in care
- Learning and improving everyday

Learning from the challenges of the past and looking to the future, we understand that we are building towards a more engaged, more reliable, always safe health service in partnership with our people to improve every day.
